

VIRTUAL ANNUAL MEETING AT A GLANCE

Join USLSSHA in a virtual conference focusing on Southeastern North Carolina!

Lectures are all hosted LIVE on Zoom and available afterward on Facebook.

Supplemental tours and interactives will only be available on Facebook.

Thursday, September 23rd

Host Org: NC Maritime Museum at Southport

10:30 a.m. Welcome by Captain Baer of Sector North Carolina

11:15 a.m. Oak Island Station: A Pictorial History by Katy Menne

Supplemental:

- Tour 1888 Life-Saving Station
- Tour U.S. Coast Guard Station Oak Island

Friday, September 24th

Host Org: Bald Head Lighthouse & Smith Island
Museum of History

11 a.m. History of the USLSS on Bald Head Island

Through Artifacts by McAllie Givens

Supplemental:

- Tour 1913 Life-Saving Station Boathouse
- Graveyard Interactive Map

Saturday, September 25th

Host Org: Historic Wilmington Foundation

10:30 a.m. History of the USLSS at Fort Macon and Cape
Lookout by Ben Wunderly

11:30 a.m. Annual Meeting

U.S. Life-Saving Service Heritage Association

Dedicated to Preserving our National Life-Saving Treasures

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 23RD

10:30 a.m. Welcome by Captain Baer of Sector
North Carolina

11:15 a.m. Oak Island Station: A Pictorial
History by Katy Menne

Supplemental:

- Tour 1888 Life-Saving Station House
- Tour U.S. Coast Guard Station Oak Island

Welcome & Lecture are hosted live on ZOOM then available on Facebook later. Supplemental items are only available on Facebook.

Image of Coast Guard Station Oak Island. Courtesy of N.C Maritime Museum at Southport.

U.S. Life-Saving Service Heritage Association

Dedicated to Preserving our National Life-Saving Treasures

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24TH

11 a.m. History of the USLSS on Bald Head Island

Through Artifacts by McAllie Givens

Supplemental:

- Tour 1913 Life-Saving Station Boathouse
- Graveyard Interactive Map

Lecture is hosted live on ZOOM then available on Facebook later. Supplemental items are only available on Facebook.

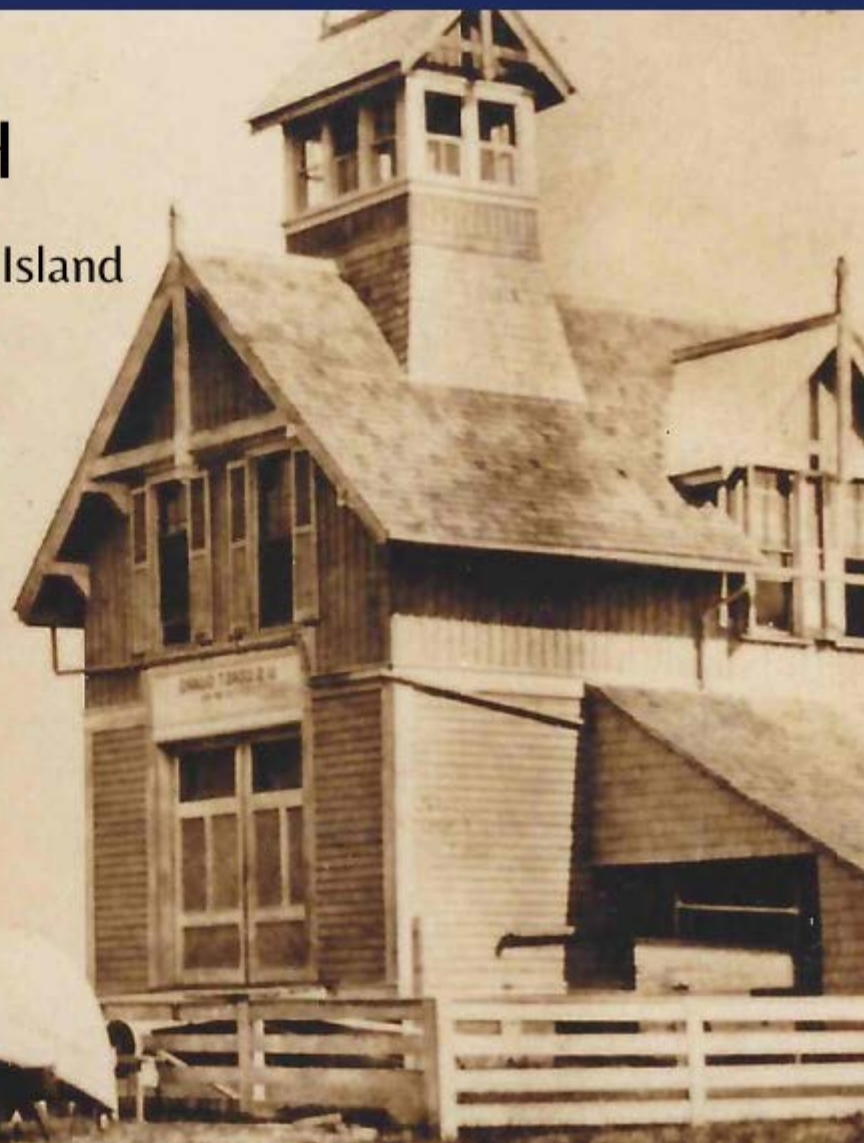

Image of Coast Guard Station Oak Island. Courtesy of N.C Maritime Museum at Southport.

U.S. Life-Saving Service Heritage Association

Dedicated to Preserving our National Life-Saving Treasures

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25TH

10:30 a.m. History of the USLSS at Fort Macon and Cape Lookout by Ben Wunderly

11:30 a.m. Annual Meeting

Lecture & Meeting are hosted live on ZOOM then available on Facebook later.
Supplemental items are only available on Facebook.

Image of Coast Guard Station Oak Island. Courtesy of N.C Maritime Museum at Southport.